MEMORANDUM FOR: Dr. Gerald P. Dinneen
Assistant Secretary of Defense
(Communications, Command, Control and Intelligence)
Room 3E282
The Pentagon
Washington, D.C. 20301

SUBJECT : Executive Agent for Communications Security, National Security Communications Protection Committee (NSCPC)
Draft Directive (U)

REFERENCE : Former United States Communications Security Board
(USCSB) Memorandum, COMSEC 5-1/26, 5 May 1978

1. (U) The attachment contains the Agency's general comments on the subject draft and suggests specific changes where appropriate.

2. (U) I view the first two issues of decision and policymaking and the means for protecting intelligence sources and methods to be especially critical ones. If you agree with the Agency's position on those topics, our respective staffs can work out the precise language of the draft.

3. (C) I am designating [redacted] Director of Communications, CIA as the CIA principal of the NSCPC. [redacted] will also serve as CIA's point of contact for staffing the proposed changes to the NSCPC draft directive.

[redacted]

4. (U) In the interest of expedience I have taken the liberty of forwarding the CIA review directly to you with an information copy to the Executive Secretary of the former USCSB.
